

MAY
2021

HOUSE & GARDEN[®]

chintz charming

INSIDE NICKY HASLAM'S
LATEST DECORATING
PROJECT IN LONDON

THE DESIGNER EFFECT
INSPIRING HOUSES
TRANSFORMED
WITH CLEVER IDEAS FOR EVERY ROOM

PLUS
STYLE SECRETS TO STEAL FROM SMART HOTELS

The Art Edit... Continued

70. Using her own handmade paint, NANCY ANDRUK OLSON creates lush, dreamlike landscapes that are reminiscent of an imagined world. Her work provides an escape through vibrant colour and broad, loose brushstrokes. She works in all dimensions, but specializes in panorama sized work that whisk you away to whereabouts unknown. See all of her work at www.nancyandrukolson.com or for daily updates follow @nancyandrukolson on Instagram.

71. CHRISTOPHE LIMA is an American contemporary expressionist living in Long Island, NY. Working primarily in painting mediums, she honestly and authentically explores identity, humanity, consciousness, and our collective inner surroundings. Pictured here is "I'd Rather be Sleeping" a 7' x 10' gouache and charcoal exploration of warmth and safety. Follow @christophe.lima.fineartist on Facebook, @christophe.lima.artist on Instagram or visit www.christophelima.com

72. ROYO continues his distinguished career painting the dramatic essence of the Mediterranean light. Influenced by artists like Renoir and Sorolla, Royo's ability to use colour to capture luminosity is unparalleled. Learn more about this exceptional artist, visit www.royoart.com or contact Triad Art Group at info@triadartgroup.com

73. EMILY JONES (aka Fold Em') is a Bristol based artist creating 3-D, contemporary artworks from hand folded shapes which she then enhances with a range of media. Inspired by her love of geometric, structural figures, this creative process results in familiar forms portrayed in a new light. Visit www.foldem.co.uk and follow @fold.em on Instagram.

74. SHERNAALI VAN DER SPEK is an Australian based artist who paints with Alcohol Ink to create vibrant and emotive pieces that draw you in. Using an evocative palette and metallic accents, Shernaali's pieces bring a sense of slow flowing movement and freshness to the space they adorn. Visit @naarji_art on Social Media or www.naarliart.bigcartel.com for more information.

75. LUCIA PARIS is a self taught abstract artist born in Leeds, United Kingdom. She is best known for her evocative and textured works of art, incorporating metallics to add depth and richness. Shown here is, 'Vibrations'. Visit www.luciaparis.com to see more of her work or contact info@luciaparis.com for more information.

76. NADINE MONTILLE is inspired by boundless colours unique to the tropical traits of the South East Asian region. Her compositions represent a deep understanding of the natural world and an awe of its unpredictable flow. Her work incorporates bold, somewhat delicate shapes of intuitive abstraction. The natural complexity of colours lead to a dreamy organic composition of feminine perspective, both lush and abundant. Visit www.montilleart.com and follow @montilleart on Instagram to find out more.

77. PASCALE SCHMID is a Swiss artist. Following a major mourning she decided to leave the financial world where she used to work for many years and to concentrate on her artistic work using it like a therapy. Exploring different styles and techniques, she enjoys variations. To find out more, follow @pascalemyart on Instagram or email pascal@pascalplaces.com

78. CIET FRIETHOFF presents 'Love in a vase', a colourful, minimalist paper collage that expresses the loving bond all people feel for flowers. Find more art by Ciet Friethoff by following @cietfriethoff on Instagram or visit cietfriethoff.com

79. Visionary artist DOUG DESJARDINS paintings are the epitome of Joy! He draws inspiration from daily hikes in nature, bringing flora and fauna into harmony with bright colours and a bon vivant attitude. His prints bring playfulness and whimsy to interior spaces. Visit www.duggart.shop to see more and follow @dugg_art on Instagram.

80. ALAN BODNER's art is spontaneous and unpredictable. His vibrant, theatrical compositions embody a menagerie of original characters, personalities, and creatures, in surreal, complex settings. With cultural references, mid-century aesthetics, and a sense of humour, Bodner compounds, distorts, and exaggerates for emotional effect, resulting in works that convey rhythm and whimsy. Visit alanbodner.com and follow @thebodenaire on Instagram.

81. LAURIE enjoys exploring portraiture with an abstract and modern twist. After pursuing a career in marketing and graphic design, Laurie decided to revisit her love of fine art, she currently resides with her family in Geneva, Switzerland. Visit LaurieGolchinArt.com and follow @lauriegolchinart on Instagram.

82 HELEN STEVENS is an artist and surface designer who creates work for the interiors industry. Her abstract expressionist paintings take inspiration from earth geology to construct her design led pieces. Helen can work on commission paintings, and also produces mural wallpaper in similar styles to her artwork and has recently been awarded finalist in The Northern Design Awards 2020. View www.surfacephilia.co.uk and follow @surfacephilia on Instagram.

83. ANNIE GRAINGER is a 22 year old contemporary and abstract artist based in Manchester, UK. Her modern, edgy style varies between collections and commissions, always ensuring there is something new and exciting to see. Her work focuses on bold textures using palette knives as well as brushes, featuring bright, vivid colours and expressions. Visit www.agoriginals.com and follow @ag.originals on Instagram.

84. Scottish Borders artist LOUISE CARRIE produces artwork on slate with wax and mixed media paintings that reflect her love for colour and creative expression. Louise translates the feelings evoked in her by Britain's countryside and coastlines into wonderful images of landscapes and seascapes. Visit louisecarriart.com and follow @louisecarriart on Instagram.

85. SUSAN LAPP is a multi-disciplined artist from Montreal, Canada. She strives not to create the exactness of nature but paint its essence. Known for her free style, thoughtful use of colour, balance and much movement, Susan's works exude energy, life and peace creating an emotional response within a viewer. Pictured 'I Have No Words' 48"x72" acrylic on canvas. Visit susanlapp.com contact info@susanlapp.com and follow @lappSusan on Instagram.

86. LU ZHANG is a multitalented artist based in Lyon, France. Her vibrant and unique paintings reflect her frequent travels and inner exploration for harmony. Her main interest is the concept of "home" - the physical, the emotional, and the spiritual. She explores this theme through a wide range of subjects such as Southern Italian landscape, abstracted emotions and ideas, and dreamy metaphysical scenes. Depicted here is oil diptych "Raviolis", 35 x 45 cm each. Visit www.luzhang.art and follow @luzhang.art on Instagram to find out more. Commissions and collaborations are welcome.